FISH	Reason	ſ
Be There	Stepping up in the front office
Play	Already started game day, ESL newsletter, schedules, etc
Be There	Leading the literacy PD for his department
Be There	Leading the literacy PD for his department
Make Their Day	Getting everything ready for every event to start the year
Be There	Organizing the Lit Circle PD over the summer for the English department
Be There	Organizing the Lit Circle PD over the summer for the English department
Make Their Day	Doing a circle with her classes every day
Choose Your Attitude	Being proactive with planning for their classes and caseloads
Play	having fun at the grade level meetings
Make Their Day	Orgainizing her Math I repeaters in a manner that supports student learning
Make Their Day	Orgainizing his Math I repeaters in a manner that supports student learning
Choose Your Attitude	Chose to have two resorative conferences with students, so they could re-enter her class successfully
Be There	Doing all of the things
Play	Creating engaging lessons, students took war locations and turned them into game pieces & taking a student into an honors course for the best interest of the student.
Be There	Bringing in different cultures in the math class
Choose Your Attitude	Nicest person ever on the walkie :-)
Choose Your Attitude	Parent Conference Master
Make Their Day	Always the voice of reason.
Make Their Day	Created the EC spreadhseet so we could share accomodations
Be There	Holding restorative conversations with student. Creating a restorative classrom.
Be There
Make Their Day	Multiple student positive call outs at the Homecoming game, building positive relationships!
Play	Always lots of interactive activities and games - high student participation.
Play	Orchestra in the hallway!
Play	Incorporating hands on activities that allowed students to apply their learning.
Make Their Day	Having the students involved in daily collaborative assignments, keeping them engaged through gallery walks and hands on group projects
Be There	At the drop of a hat he is always there to cover classes for IEP meetings when he is needed.
Be There	For organizing efficient and well planned picture days Having her students perform skits and asking such great sustaining questions to build critical thinking.
Play Be There	For the time she puts in during her SMART lunch duty by walking through each table, building relationships by talking to every student, and ensuring that the cafeteria clea	ninoss is ovon	ono's responsit	sility
	Providing students with project-based learning opportunities.	ininess is every	one s responsit	Jiiiy.
Play	Being there for a particular student
Be There Be There	SPARCS group
Be There	SPARCS group
Be There	SPARCS group
Be There	SPARCS group
Make Their Day	Amazing chorus concert
Make Their Day
Choose Your Attitude	3-2-1 Field Trip - didn't get stressed out and did what was best for the kids
		۱

Make Their Day	Smooth testing Season
Be There	Helping Ms. Williams with an Art Conest.
Be There	school spirit award
Choose Your Attitude	Work with All timely
Play	Organizing an amazing project in collaboration with Ms. Mester
Play	APHUG
Be There	Putting together the parent night
Be There	Getting 100% of targeted student proficient on the Math III EOC
Be There	Getting 100% of targeted student proficient on the Math III EOC
Choose Your Attitude	Math I
Choose Your Attitude	Math I
Be There	for fixing A computer-Carlson plans to the sub-Williams
	black history -Williams
	black history-Williams
	small group-Lee organizaition-Stephens
Be There	registration-Smoots
Be There	Taking on clubs and PLC leadership roles in her first year at RHS-Brown
Choose Your Attitude	has a calming spirit and his students are always engaged in the physical or learning activity in his classes, we are all happy he is a part of the team #longestfishever
Be There	giving students multiple oppurtunties to outside of school experiences-Carlson		